

PRIVATE LAWS

SECOND SESSION, EIGHTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS

Private Law 87-285

AN ACT
For the relief of Elwood Brunken.

February 16, 1962
[S. 631]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Elwood Brunken of Tripp, South Dakota, such sum as the Secretary of Agriculture determines the said Elwood Brunken would have been entitled to receive under his crop insurance policy with the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation for crop losses sustained by him in 1959 had the croplands on which such losses were sustained not been determined (after such losses were sustained) to be noninsurable by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation. In determining the amount the said Elwood Brunken would have been entitled to receive, the Secretary of Agriculture shall subtract an amount equal to the amount refunded to the said Elwood Brunken by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation on account of insurance premiums paid by him for the years 1958 and 1959.

Elwood Brunken.

Approved February 16, 1962.

AN ACT

For the relief of Kenneth Stultz.

Kenneth Stultz.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Kenneth Stultz, of Columbia, Missouri, is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $579.56, the amount by which he was overpaid as a regular clerk in the postal service during the periods from July 1, 1953, to May 17, 1957, inclusive, and from July 12, 1958, to April 30, 1960, inclusive. Such overpayments were made as a result of an administrative error on the part of the Post Office Department in determining the longevity increases to which he was entitled. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for any amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Kenneth Stultz, of Columbia, Missouri, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved February 16, 1962.
